If you're looking for another reason to explore Delmarva this summer, the newest Great Wolf Lodge is opening in Perryville, Maryland!

Opening in mid-July, the $250+ million ADA-compliant project sits on 48 acres, just off I-95 near the Susquehanna River and the Delaware state line. With 700 rooms and themed suites, plus activities for all ages, Great Wolf Lodge is great for a quick staycation, getaway, or a stop along the way while exploring Delmarva and the Eastern Shore.

Great Wolf Lodge features a six-story, 128,000-square-foot indoor-outdoor waterpark resort (the largest the company has) with 22 slides, waves, a lazy river, pools, and a cozy 84-degree year-round temperature. The adjacent Family Fun Center houses more activities for families, such as duck pin bowling, mirror maze, rock wall, mini-golf, arcade, and a high ropes course.

And don't forget about the dining options, which include quick-serve outlets, bars and full-service restaurants. "There's something for everyone," says General Manager Nadine Miracle, "whether you're looking for burgers at Buckets or an upscale dinner at our sit-down restaurant Barnwood."

TIPS FOR WHEN YOU GO

- Check the “deals” page on the website. Standard rates start at $199.99 per night.
- For the best deal, buy passes before you arrive.
- Plan on a ratio of one adult to one child.
- Book a weeknight while school is in session for a lower room rate and fewer people.
- Bring several bathing suits, and shower or bath shoes.
- Life jackets, from children to adults, are available.
- Put the children in PJ's when you go for evening story time. |
- Wristbands provide an easy guide to which rides are age appropriate.

Standard rates start at $199.99 per night and include free wi-fi. An opening discount of 25 percent off standard rates was offered for stays through December 14, 2023. Sales are held frequently with the best rates usually available 60 days or more before the desired booking date. Sign up for email to receive notices of $84 special rates (park temperature).
